- (a) where he or she is the holder of a licence, in writing revoke the licence;
- (b) in any case, in writing direct that no licence shall be granted to that person during such period not exceeding ten years.

PART III— LICENSING OF BUSINESSES OTHER THAN THOSE PROVIDING PROFESSIONAL AND CONSULTANCY SERVICES

Licensing officers

8. (1) County Executive Committee Member shall appoint the Chief Officer responsible for Trade, Commerce and Industries to be County Business Licensing Officer responsible for the issuing of business licences under this Act.

(2) The office of business licensing officer shall be an office in the Kitui county public service.

(3) The Chief Officer responsible for Trade, Commerce and Industries may delegate in writing any powers under this Act to one or more officers in the county to issue business licences for the purposes of this Act and perform any other duty as may be necessary for the execution of this Act.

Partnerships

9. (1) Every business licence or conditional business licence granted in respect of a partnership shall be in the joint names of all the partners.

(2) In the event of any change in the constitution of a partnership which is the holder of a business licence or a conditional business licence, the remaining partners shall, within seven (7) days of such change, give written notice thereof to the business licensing officer.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, any business licence or conditional business licence held by a partnership shall, at the expiration of six (6) months from the date of any change in the constitution of the partnership, or upon the issue of a business licence in respect of the business concerned to the reconstituted partnership, whichever is the earlier, become void and shall forthwith be surrendered to the business licensing officer for cancellation:

Provided that this subsection shall not apply in any case where—

- (a) a change in the constitution of a partnership is occasioned by the death or retirement of a partner; and
- (b) no new partner is brought in to replace the deceased or retired partner; and
- (c) there are at least two partners remaining.

(4) In the event of any failure to give notice, or to surrender a business licence, as required by this section, each of the remaining partners shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand Kenya shillings or imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to such fine and imprisonment.

(5) In this section "remaining partners" means the partner or partners named in a business licence or conditional business licence who remain in the partnership after any change in the constitution thereof.

Conditional licences

10. (1) A business licensing officer may grant a conditional business licence to a person who makes application therefore in the prescribed manner, and may attach any conditions thereto which he or she thinks necessary.

(2) A conditional business licence shall not entitle the holder thereof to conduct any business but shall specify the kind of business and the premises in respect of which a business licence is to be granted under subsection (6).

(3) The fee for the grant of a conditional business licence shall be one-half of the fee prescribed for that particular business and premises under subsection (2).

(4) A conditional business licence shall be valid for a period of twelve months from the date of the issue thereof.

(5) An application for a conditional business licence in continuation of one which is due to expire shall be made at least three months before the date of such expiration.

(6) At any time during the validity of a conditional business licence, the holder thereof may apply to the business licensing officer for a business licence in respect of the business and the premises specified in the conditional business licence, and if the licensing officer is satisfied that the conditions, if any, upon which such conditional business licence was issued have been fulfilled he shall, upon payment of the appropriate fee and notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, grant such business licence to the applicant.

(7) Where a licensing officer refuses to grant a conditional business licence or attaches conditions thereto he shall give to the applicant, if so requested, the reasons in writing for his action.

Grant of Licence

11. (1) A person desirous of obtaining a business licence shall make application therefor in the prescribed form in the regulations, and the business licensing officer may—

- (a) grant a business licence accordingly, either without conditions or subject to such conditions as he may think fit, or refuse to grant a business licence;
- (b) where he decides to grant a business licence and the applicant is not a citizen of Kenya, the applicant must produce a valid foreign investment registration certificate to the business licensing officer as authority to do business in Kenya under national legislation;

(2) Where a business licensing officer—

- (a) refuses to grant a business licence; or
- (b) imposes conditions in a business licence; or
- (c) refuses to grant authority in a business licence for the purposes of section 7 (2), he shall give to the applicant, if the applicant so requests, the reasons in writing for his action.

(3) Except as otherwise expressly provided, the appropriate fee specified for the particular business shall be payable in respect of each business authorized by a licence.

(4) No business shall be conducted without a valid business licence. A business licence shall be valid for a period ending on the 31st, December next following the date issued unless renewed:

Provided that the County Executive Committee Member may direct that any particular business licence or class of business licence, whether defined by class of business or area of application or both, shall be valid for such other period as he may specify, and in any such case the fee payable for any such business licence shall be varied proportionally.

(5) An application for the grant of a business licence which is in continuation of or substitution for an existing business licence shall be made at least three months before the expiry date of the existing business licence.

(6) A business licence shall specify the premises at which the licensee may conduct his or her business, and, where a business is conducted at more than one premise, a separate business licence shall be required for each of such premises:

Provided that where a business is conducted by one management in premises divided by walls but otherwise communicating internally with one another only one business licence shall be required for such business.

(7) The effect of a business licence shall be to authorize the licensee to conduct a business or businesses specified in the business licence at the premises so specified.

Amendment of Licence

12. (1) Subject to this Act, a business licence may be amended upon written application for amendment to the business licensing officer;

(2) the licensee shall inform the business licensing officer in writing of any change within 30 days;

(3) if a licensee fails to inform business the licensing officer under the subsection, the business licensing officer may impose penalty.

(4) the business licensing officer may amend the business licence by—

- (a) substituting another kind of business for the kind of business specified in the business licence, or adding another kind of business; or
- (b) substituting other premises for the premises specified in the business licence,
- (c) by endorsing the business licence accordingly.

(5) Where a business licensing officer refuses to amend a business licence under subsection (1), he shall give to the applicant, if the applicant so requests, the reasons in writing for his action.

(6) A business licence amended under this section shall be valid for the remaining period of the amended business licence

(7) There shall be payable upon an amendment of a business licence under this section the appropriate fee in respect of each business authorized by such business licence as so amended.

Transfer of licences

13. (1) Save as hereinafter provided, no business licence shall be transferred to any person.

(2) Any licensee who lends, rents, transfers or assigns, or attempts or purports to lend, rent, transfer or assign, his business licence to any other person, and any person who borrows or makes use of a business licence granted to another and not lawfully transferred under subsection (3), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine of Kenya shillings one hundred thousand or to imprisonment for a term of six months imprisonment or to both such fine and imprisonment.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), a business licensing officer shall, if so requested, transfer a licence to any of the following persons—

- (a) in the case of the death of the business licensee, to surviving heirs or the legal personal representative of such licensee;
- (b) in the case of the bankruptcy of the licensee or assignment for the benefit of his creditors generally, to the lawfully appointed trustee or assignee;

- (c) in the case of a corporation in liquidation, to the lawfully appointed liquidator;
- (d) in any case where the licensee becomes subject to a legal disability, to any person lawfully appointed to administer his affairs, and any business licence so transferred shall, notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, continue to be valid for a period remaining of the so transferred business licence

(4) There shall be payable upon the transfer of a business licence under subsection (3) a fee of ten per centum of the fee paid for the issue of such business licence.

Display of Licence and Duplicates

14. (1) Every business licence shall, except when lodged with a and duplicates licensing officer for any of the purposes of this Act, be displayed in a prominent /conspicuous position on the premises of licensee's principal place of business in respect of which it was issued and where any business licence is not so displayed the licensee shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding hundred thousand shillings.

(2) The business licensing officer, any police officer or any administrator who has reason to believe that a business person is required to hold a business licence, after proper identification, may demand from the person carrying on the business activity the production of a business licence.

(3) if a person has been required under this section to produce a business licence for inspection and does not—

- a) Produce a business licence within two working days; or
- b) Permit the officer to read and examine the business licence when produced,

The person commits an offence, and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand Kenya shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one month;

(3) Where, upon application in the prescribed manner, it is shown to the satisfaction of the business licensing officer that a business licence has been lost, destroyed or defaced, such officer shall, upon payment of a fee of Kenya shillings one hundred, issue a duplicate of such business licence to the licensee.

Principles of Licensing

15. In the performance of his functions under sections 10, 11 and 13 a business licensing officer shall—

- (a) be guided by the principle that businesses carried on in any place which is not within a general business area ought, where practicable, to be controlled by a resident of Kitui County, and that specified goods ought, where practicable, to be dealt in by residents of Kitui County, and in particular take into consideration—
 - (i) Whether the activities in respect of which the business licence is applied for ought to be and could be carried on by a business conducted by residents of Kitui County;
 - (ii) Whether the activity will be in the public interest; and
 - (iii) Any special programme of development in the area concerned; and
- (b) Satisfy himself or herself that the applicant and every other person who will conduct the business has not—
 - (i) Been adjudged bankrupt and not been discharged, or entered into a composition or a scheme of arrangement with his or her creditors which is still binding;
 - (ii) Within the five years immediately preceding the date of the application, been convicted of an offence under the law relating to bankruptcy; or;
 - (iii) Within the period specified in subparagraph (ii), been convicted of an offence under this Act, or the Weights and Measures Act or any other relevant law
- (c) Satisfy himself or herself that the applicant and every other person who will conduct the business –
 - (i) Has attained the age of eighteen years; and
 - (ii) Has complied or will comply with all laws applicable to the business and the premises;
- (d) be at liberty to refuse a business licence, or attach conditions thereto, on the ground that the applicant or any person employed in the management of the business has used discriminatory or otherwise unfair or improper trading practices in respect of that or any other business:

Provided that a business licensing officer may grant a business licence notwithstanding the provisions of this section if he or she considers it just and reasonable to do so in all the circumstances of the case.

Revocation of licences

16. (1) A business licensing officer may in writing revoke a business licence on the ground that:

- (a) The licensee has used discriminatory or otherwise unfair or improper trading practices;
- (b) The application form contains any material misrepresentation or false statement; and
- (c) Any information given in the application for the business licence was materially incorrect so as to create a false impression of the ownership of the business or nature of its business activity;
 - (i) The licensee carries on a prohibited activity;
 - (ii) A condition imposed on the business licence was breached
 - (iii) The licensee is convicted of an offence under the Act.

(2) Where, under subsection (1), a business licensing officer revokes a business licence he shall give to the licensee, if so requested, the reasons in writing for his action.

Appeals

17. (1) Subject to subsection (2), any person who is aggrieved by the action of a business licensing officer in—

- (a) refusing to grant a business licence or conditional business licence or revoking a business licence; or
- (b) imposing conditions in a business licence or conditional business licence; or
- (c) refusing to grant authority in a business licence for the purposes of section 7 (2); or
- (d) refusing to amend a business licence under section 12, may within fourteen days of receipt by him of written notification of such action, appeal to the County Executive Committee Member, whose decision shall be final.

(2) The County Executive Committee Member shall not dismiss an appeal under subsection (1) unless he has first referred it to an appeals advisory committee and considered the advice of that committee.

(3) The appeals advisory committee provided for in subsection (2) shall consist of not less than—

- (a) Three members of the committee responsible for trade, commerce and industry in the County Assembly of Kitui;
- (b) Two advocates practicing in Kitui county; and
- (c) Three persons who have experience in one of the occupations and are members of National chamber of commerce and industry Kitui chapter;

PART IV—ENFORCEMENT

18. (1) A business licensing officer, enforcement officer, police officer above the rank of Inspector may upon production evidence of his or her authority to any person reasonably requiring it.

- (a) at any reasonable time, enter any premises which he has reasonable grounds for believing to be occupied by a business, and inspect such premises and any book, document or other thing found therein for the purpose of ascertaining whether this Act is being complied with; and
- (b) require any person appearing to be conducting the business or to be employed in it to give such information within his or her power as the officer may reasonably require to enable him or her to ascertain whether this Act is being complied with.

(2) Any person who hinders or obstructs an officer acting under subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Kenya shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding eighteen months;

Acts of Agent or Servant

19. For the purposes of this Act, a person conducting a business shall be responsible for the acts or omissions of any partner, agent or servant of his in so far as they concern his business, and if such partner, agent or servant commits any act or makes any omission which is an offence under this Act, or which would be an offence if committed by the person conducting the business, such person and his partner, his agent or his servant, as the case may be, shall each be guilty of the offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred thousand Kenya shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding eighteen months; Provided that—

No. 11

Kitui County Business Licensing

2014

- (i) where a person conducting a business is, by virtue of this section, charged with an offence under this Act, it shall be a defence to the charge to prove that he had reasonable ground to believe and did believe that a competent and reliable person was charged with the duty of seeing that the requirements of this Act were complied with and was in a position to discharge that duty; and
- (ii) a person shall not be sentenced to imprisonment for such an offence unless, in the opinion of the court, the offence was committed wilfully.

False Information

20. Any person who makes a false statement or a statement which he has reason to believe is untrue—

- (a) in an application under this Act or otherwise to a licensing officer in connection with this Act; or
- (b) to an officer acting under section 18, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable upon conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty thousand Kenya shillings or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

Presumptions

21. (1) Where, in a prosecution for an offence under section 7, it is alleged that a person is not a resident of Kitui County; it shall be presumed that that person is not a resident of Kitui County until the contrary is proven.

(2) Where, in a prosecution for an offence under section 7, it is alleged that a person does not hold a current business licence, it shall be presumed that that person does not hold a current business licence until the contrary is proved.
